OBJECTIVE OF CLM POLICY:

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) vide circular no. RBI/2020-21/63 FIDD. CO. Plan. BC.No.8/04.09.01/2020-21 has put in place a framework for co-origination and co-lending to priority sector by Banks and a category of Non-Banking Financial Companies (NBFCs). The arrangement entailed joint contribution of credit at the facility level by both the lenders as also sharing of risks and rewards. The earlier scheme of Co-origination has now been rechristened as "Co-Lending Model" (CLM), to improve the flow of credit to the unserved and underserved sector of the economy and make available funds to the ultimate beneficiary at an affordable cost, considering the lower cost of funds from banks and greater reach of the NBFCs to deeper markets and geographies.

SCOPE OF CLM POLICY

In terms of the CLM, Aye Finance Private Limited (AYE FINANCE) is permitted to co-lend with all interested Banks & NBFC's (collectively called as "Co-lending partner ") based on a prior agreement. The co-lending banks will take their share of the individual loans on a back-to-back basis in their books. However, AYE FINANCE shall be required to retain a minimum of 20 per cent share of the individual loans on their books.

Following are the requirements for implementing CLM in AYE FINANCE: -

1. AYE FINANCE along with Co-lending partner will formulate Board approved policy for entering CLM and display the same on their respective websites. Accordingly, AYE FINANCE has prepared this Policy.
2. A Master Agreement is to be entered into between the two partner institutions (AYE FINANCE and Co-lending partner) which shall inter-alia include, terms and conditions of the arrangement, the criteria for selection of partner institutions, the specific product lines, and areas of operation, along with provisions related to segregation of responsibilities as well as customer interface and protection issues in format prescribed by RBI.
3. The above-mentioned master agreement may include either of the below options: -
 - a. Co-lending partner to mandatorily take in their books, the share of the individual loan as originated by AYE FINANCE
 - b. Co-lending partner retain the discretion or right to reject certain loans subject to its due diligence before taking on their books.

OPTION (I)

If the Agreement entails a prior, irrevocable commitment on the part of the bank to take into its books its share of the individual loans as originated by AYE FINANCE, the arrangement must comply with the extant guidelines on Managing Risks and Code of Conduct in Outsourcing of Financial Services by Banks issued vide RBI/2014-15/497/DBR.No.BP.BC.76/21.04.158/2014-15 dated March 11, 2015 and updated from time to time. In particular, the partner bank and AYE FINANCE shall have to put in place suitable mechanisms for ex-ante due diligence by the bank as the credit sanction process cannot be outsourced under the extant guidelines.

OPTION (II)

If bank can exercise its discretion regarding taking into its books the loans originated by AYE FINANCE as per the Agreement, the arrangement will be like a direct assignment transaction. Accordingly, the taking over bank shall ensure compliance with all the requirements in terms of Guidelines on Transactions Involving Transfer of Assets through Direct Assignment of Cash Flows and the Underlying Securities issued vide RBI/2011-12/540 DBOD. No. BP. BC-103/21.04.177/2011-12 dated May 07, 2012, and RBI//2012-13/170

DNBS. PD. No. 301/3.10.01/2012-13 August 21, 2012 respectively, as updated from time to time, except for Minimum Holding Period (MHP) which shall not be applicable in such transactions undertaken in terms of this CLM.
